

Seth Steinke is an Associate at Gardner Haas PLLC. Seth has experience assisting with cases involving breach of contract, negligence, common law fraud, premises liability, and other commercial disputes.

Seth graduated from Texas Christian University in 2020, earning his B.A degree in finance, and completed his J.D. in 2023, graduating from the University of Houston Law Center. While in law school, Seth participated in Interschool Mock Trial and Mock Negotiation competitions, and was a notes and comments editor for the Houston Business and Tax Law Journal.